April 29, 2021

Greetings,

As you may know, the St. Louis County Port Authority is the owner of Jamestown Mall. The mall property is currently under contract to a potential developer with a due diligence period that was set to end on April 19, 2021. The Port Authority has agreed to extend that due diligence period until June 3, 2021. As a result, it is currently the intent of the Port Authority and the potential buyer to make an initial public announcement about the status of the project on or around May 21, 2021 following the Port Authority's next Board Meeting. In the event things change, I will keep the public informed. Thank you.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in cursive script that reads "Shalonda D. Webb". The signature is written in black ink and is positioned above the typed name and title.
